Dear Lamoille North Supervisory Union Family,

As I reflect over the Holiday, I write to express my gratitude to all who help make Lamoille North a wonderful place to teach, learn and share ideas. I consider myself fortunate to serve our schools as your Superintendent.

I am grateful to our School Boards for their wisdom and leadership on behalf of all students. You give selflessly of your time, skills and talents, so all students have opportunities to learn and grow.

Thank you to our parents and guardians for having faith in Lamoille North Supervisory Union Schools and for entrusting us with your wonderful children. They come with strong values, curiosity, respect, tolerance, and appreciation.

Thank you to our many school professionals, who serve in all capacities, and the Central Office team for your dedication to educational and organizational excellence. You strive to meet every expectation to create equity, access and opportunities for all of our students. I am humbled by your expertise and depth of knowledge.

And finally, I am so grateful for our talented, athletic, creative, inquisitive, optimistic and resilient students who inspire me everyday.

During this time, I encourage you to be inspired by the season of giving with acts of kindness and grace. As always, I am available to support you, whether that is having a conversation in my office or in town, or via email or telephone.

My best to you,

Catherine Gallagher, M.Ed.
